turn up the heat'

Another round of warrant sweeps nets more than 40 arrests

By RYAN JUSTIN FOX
Staff Writer

More than 40 people were arrested early Sunday morning as the county Sheriff's Office continues to target wanted suspects.

Sheriff Ron Bateman coordinated the sweep with state, county and city police departments as well as the local branch of the state Parole and Probation Office.

"We wanted to turn up the heat," Bateman said. "Big numbers and nobody gets hurt. That's a good day for us."

In the midst of budget cuts, the federal government gave the sheriff's office $12,000 to help with special operations in the county, said Bateman, who recently announced he would seek re-election.

Bateman said that his office is planning at least three more "big" roundups this year. Each operation usually costs about $4,000 in overtime pay for officers.

The office conducted a weeklong warrant sweep last week that apprehended 27 offenders, including several with gang ties.

Sunday's sweep also netted suspected gang members, although Bateman declined to provide specifics on gang affiliations.

The sweep, besides being an opportunity to get new K-9 dog Grim out on his first such effort, let the sheriff's office target growing hot spots of crime as well as violent, habitual offenders. The sweep focused on residents in Annapolis, Glen Burnie, Pasadena, Odenton and Crofton.

The sheriff's office said those arrested included:

- Michael Sauter, 36, of Pasadena, for first-degree assault.
- Amy Rush, 34, of Pasadena, for theft less than $300.
- Michelle Ownings, 40, of Glen Burnie, for theft less than $500/passing a bad check under $500.
- Terrance Jones, 20, of Glen Burnie, for driving on a suspended license.
- Derrick Norfolk, 22, of Glen Burnie, for DUI.
- Alvarada Hernandez, 25, of Pasadena, for failure to obey a lawful order.
- Jan Soutar, 31, of Pasadena, for driving on a suspended license.
